Fanfare for Mr. Eppler

Mr. Eppler and his wife dancing gracefully in "The Rose Garden" to the music of Red McCarthy.

WE, THE CLASS OF 1952, proudly dedicate this edition of the Elizabethan to Mr. Alton H. Eppler. . . . Mr. Eppler has been our faithful and untiring adviser throughout our school career. . . . He has guided us with sympathetic understanding and helped us in our work with unparalleled enthusiasm. . . . In this way we wish to extend to Mr. Eppler our appreciation for all he has done for us.

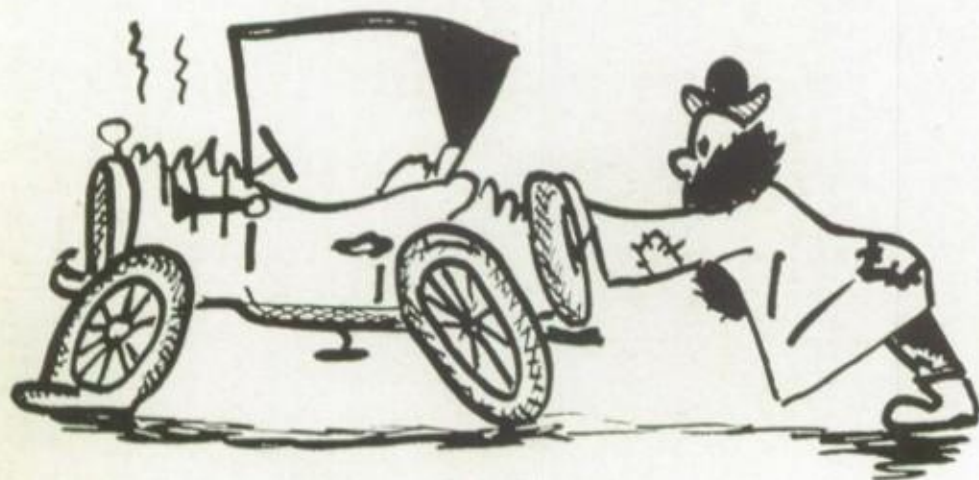

Mr. Eppler . . . cheerfully performing one of his many duties as class adviser—selling candy at noontime.

Mr. Eppler . . . carefully adjusts a slide in the microscope before his next class.

Mr. Alton H. Eppler

Living Today . . .

This way, folks. Step right up and get your tickets for the greatest show on earth. Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! Right this way. Don't miss a second of it, folks. See all the sports and activities! It has taken both time and money to bring the feature act before the eyes of the public. So you don't want to miss a second of it. . . Hurry! . . Hurry! . . Hurry! . . Right this way!

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF '52:

I wish to thank the Senior Class for the faith and confidence placed in me as your adviser. I express my sincere and heartfelt wishes in congratulating you upon the completion of your work. I know that you feel a sense of satisfaction in achieving your objective started twelve years ago.

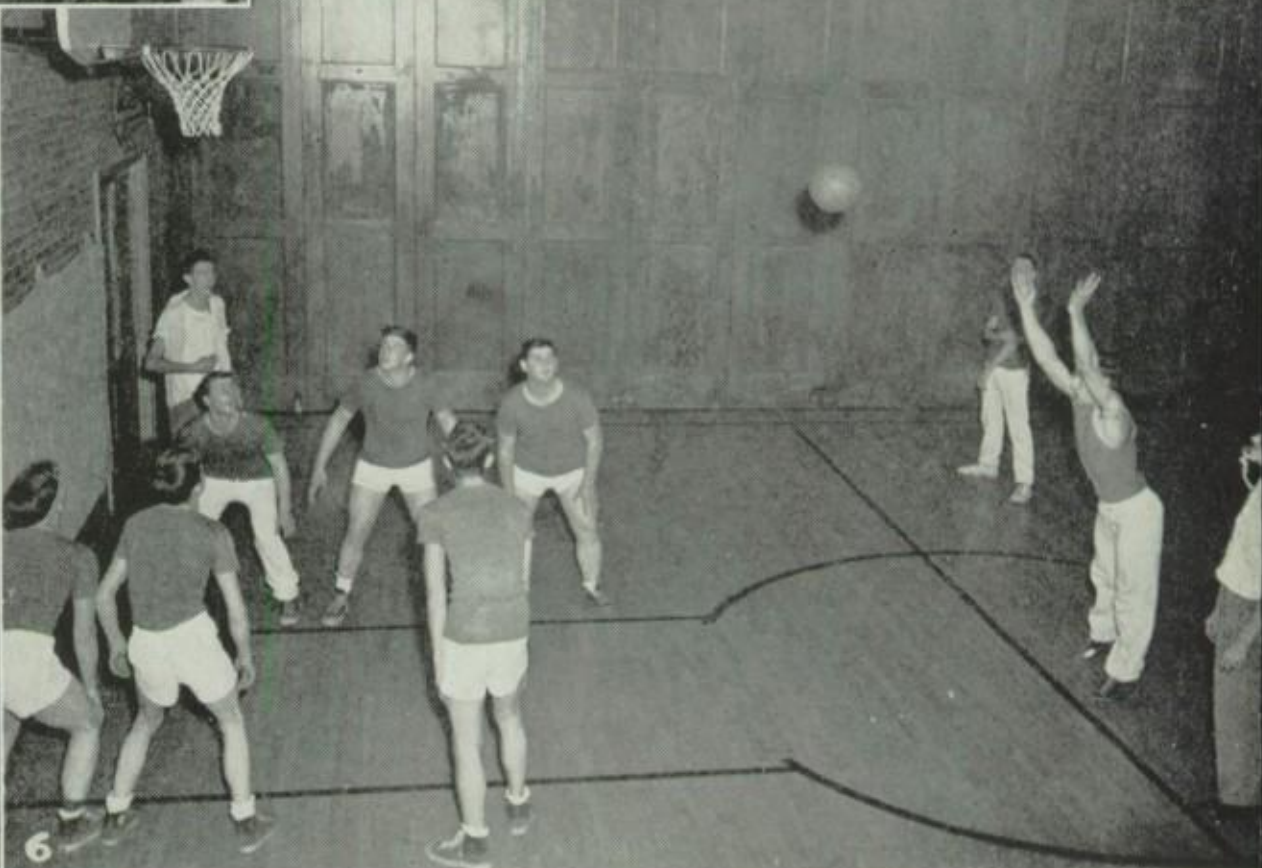

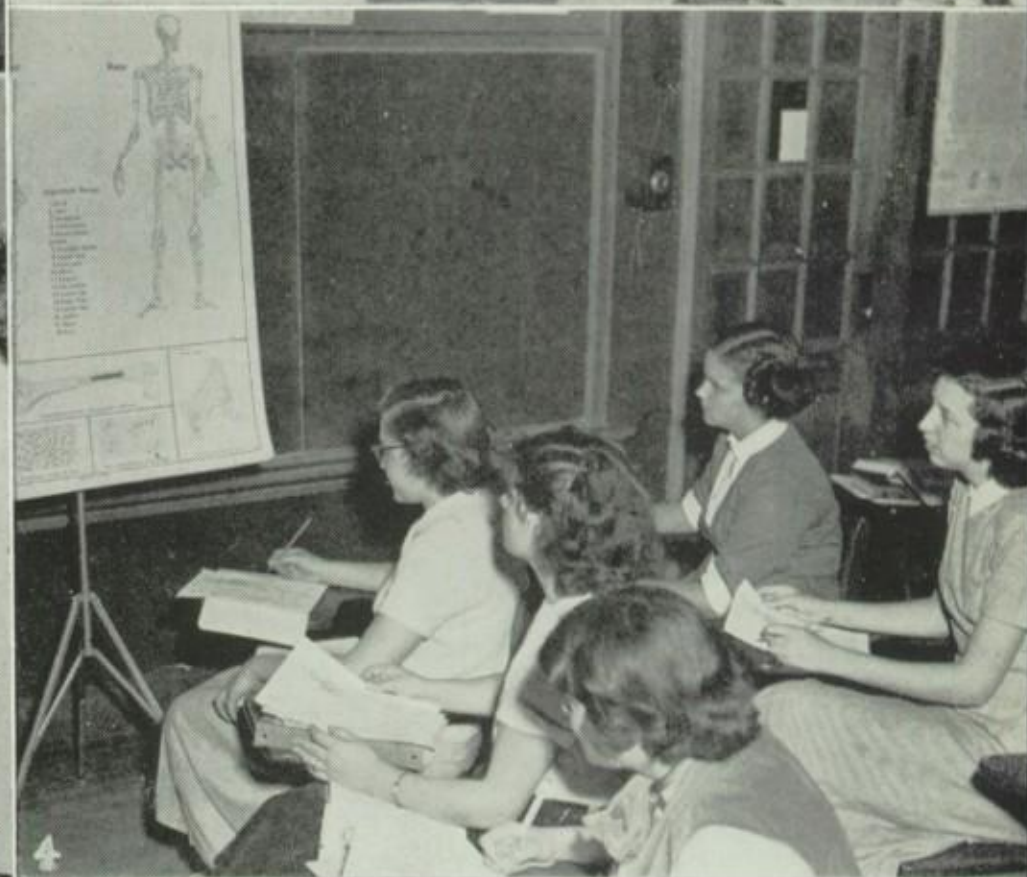

My only hope is that you have profited by the guidance and teachings of your faculty and administration in preparing you to cope with modern everyday problems and to become good useful citizens of your community, state, and nation.

It is with this thought in mind that I wish all of you seniors a successful future whatever profession you will follow after your graduation.

Sincerely yours,

Alton H. Eppler

Junior Play

. . . LEARNING THE ROPES

THERE'S ADVENTURE AHEAD for the Santrys at old Uncle Gideon's Homestead . . . this provided the mood for the hectic weeks of practice. . . . We're afraid Miss Mengel had quite a time gathering her little flock of Junior thespians together . . . what a riot! . . . Many were practicing their basketball shots on the sly. . . . Our love birds claim their smooching to be extremely tour de force! . . . What did Hollinger use on his face? Fels Naptha? . . . the day everyone lugged in their old family portraits. Everyone, including country cousins with slickum on their hair, on hand for final scene . . . fond memories for Tex! . . . As our first dramatic venture, we enjoyed a tremendous success!

Top: The energetic cast of "New Fires," under the capable direction of Miss Miriam Mengel.

Top Center: Stephen, laying down the law . . . "If you don't work, you don't eat."

Lower Center: "Poor Daddy" . . . Dick and Eve leading a discussion of their fathers' problems.

Bottom: "Hear those bones rattlin'?" asks Billy as he leads Phyllis, Olive, Ann, and Eve on a tour of their supposedly haunted house.

Senior Play

. . . TOP PERFORMANCE

THE ORCHESTRA IS PLAYING the final strain of "Surrey with the Fringe on Top," there is a slight shuffle of feet on the stage, the house lights dim, the curtains open, and the play, "Melody Jones," begins.

This was the beginning of the end, after four weeks of work and pleasure.

None of us will ever forget the "Silent Movies" that were put on by Grubb Inc. Remember the villain and the poor sick widow? How about Vuxta's comical antics and all the times we had to go over that fatal birthday scene because somebody laughed. Poor Mr. Grosh, what he had to put up with! Remember the times the stage-doors were locked? Kitty and Mike had a good laugh over that.

It's a well-known fact that the Senior Class made most of their profit selling Kleenex to a tearful audience, who shared the surprising shock with Melody.

Few were privileged to see the wild burlesque treatment that the cast gave "Melody Jones" after everyone had gone home.

These few momentoes will live long in the hearts of those who were part of it.

Top: "I don't care if the scenery falls down; do your best." Mr. Grosh, our dynamic coach, gives last minute advice before the curtain goes up.

Top Center: "Just what I always wanted." Melody enthusiastically receives a birthday present of "Drop Dead" insect repellent.

Lower Center Right: Is it spring fever or love? Melody returns in one of her dreamy moods.

Bottom: The Joneses are astounded on learning Melody's whereabouts.

Seniors

... BETWEEN THE ACTS

Clowns in Their Antics

Underclasses

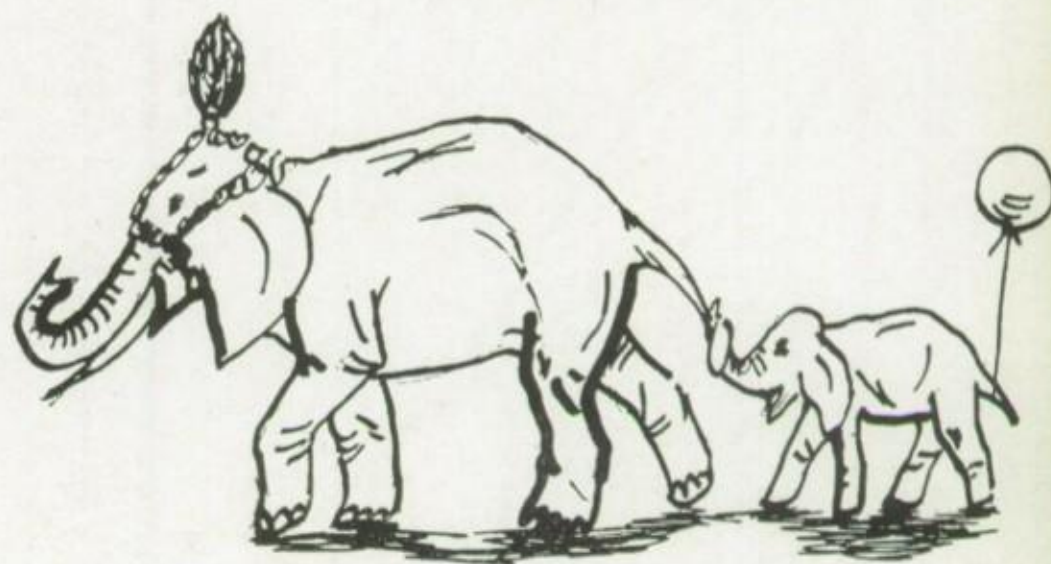

The hard climb up the ladder to higher education has begun. The anxieties of entering high school gradually blend into a feeling of co-operation toward learning and into the enthusiasm in knowing that soon they, too, will be seniors partaking of the privileges and honors that are their inheritance.

Juniors . . . MERRY VENDORS

Class Officers, Left to Right . . . Miss J. Hunsecker, adviser; S. Patton, secretary; M. Martin, treasurer; J. Dougherty, president; D. Warfel, vice-president.

S. Patton, D. Kniley, D. Grubb, J. Wanamaker, S. Brown, and G. Hixson busy raising money at their Farm Fair stand.

The loyal supporters of the Senior Play were greeted with a program and a smile by the following junior girls: P. Rosensteel, J. Heisey, G. Clarke, B. Sinniger, and D. Miller.

"Oh! those brief forms!" The 11-3 girls striving for the 60-minute take.

These 11-2 girls certainly will have no trouble with interior decorating when they become housewives.

Peanuts, Kettlecorn, and Crackerjacks

"THE PAST FOREVER GONE; the future still our own" is our class motto. . . . We've been working hard to achieve our goal as good citizens. . . . We've worked hard at football and basketball games to raise money for our senior class trip to Washington. . . . Forever asking, "Did you try our Kettlecorn?" . . . Although we were a bit shaky when we got on stage, our Junior Class Play was a huge success. . . . The happy day on which we got our class rings was January 3. . . . Led by our competent adviser, Miss Jane Hunsecker, we had a very prosperous year. . . . We chose for our officers: John F. Dougherty, president; Dean H. Warfel, vice-president; Sue B. Patton, secretary; and Mary E. Martin, treasurer.

Athletics

Athletics play a large part in our every-day school life here at Elizabethtown High, not only for the boys but also for the girls. This valuable training helps not only to build better bodies but also to develop a higher standard of morals.

Shirley Bechtel did a super job as captain of this year's terrific cheerleading squad.

Cheerleaders ... BACKERS FOR PERFORMANCES

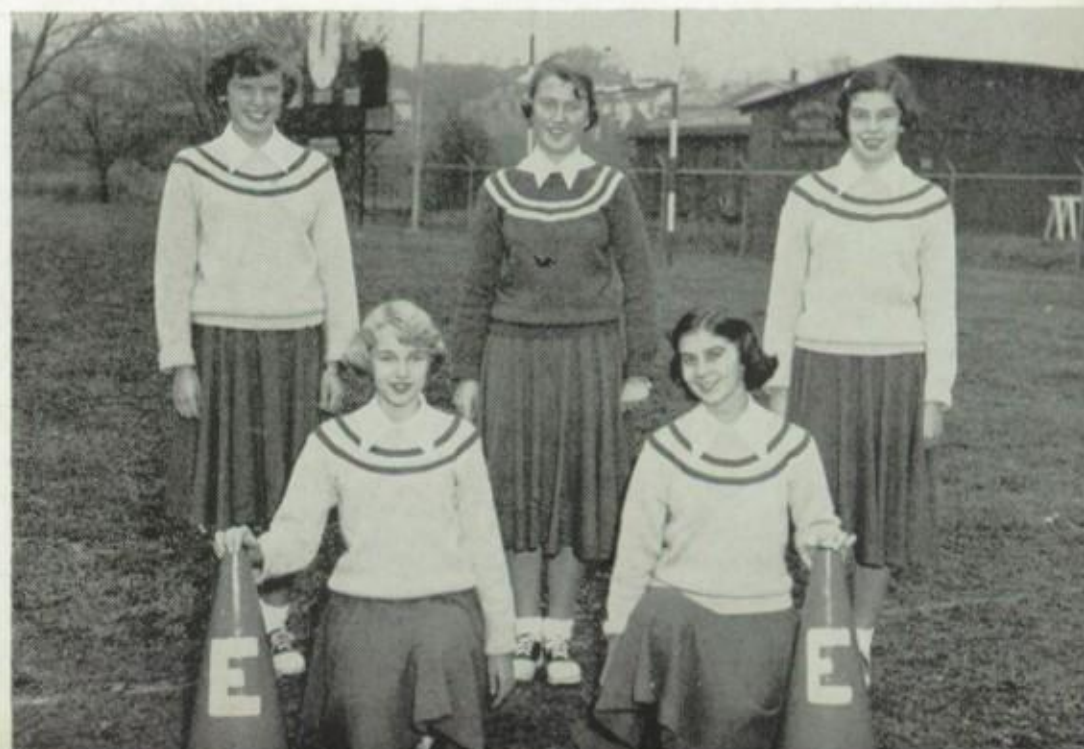

T-E-A-M . . . Yea, team!! . . . Those are our varsity cheerleaders keeping up the school spirit!! Under the capable direction of Miss Jane Hunsecker, these peppy cheerleaders led by their captain, Shirley Bechtel, deserve a lot of credit. They proudly show off their new uniforms received this year during football season. . . . Snazzy, aren't they? Keep up the spirit, kids—you're an asset to every game. There will be two seniors leaving this year: Shirley Bechtel and Nancy Schroll.

A Thrilling Season

THE BEARS, under the leadership of Coach Frank Luchnick, extended their season to a 6-3-1 season record, producing victories over Columbia, 16-0; Manheim Township, 32-6; Manheim Central, 53-6; Lititz, 12-6; Enola, 32-6; and Southern Lancaster County Joint (Quarryville), 40-0; battled to a 7-7 tie with Swatara Township; and lost close games with Palmyra, 7-6; Ephrata, 6-0; and West York, 15-6 despite well-fought and hard-fought ball games.

PALMYRA

Invading the town of Palmyra, the Bears attempted extremely hard to avenge last year's defeat and by a trick of fate the Black and Orange edged the Bears 7-6 in a hard-fought game in brilliant shirt-sleeve weather.

COLUMBIA

Determined to seek revenge, the inexperienced Crimson Tide of Columbia offered little resistance as the Bears soundly trounced them to 16-0 on the field of Elizabethtown High School.

MANHEIM TOWNSHIP

Stumpf Field in Lancaster was the scene of one of E-town's most spectacular victories as they soundly crushed the Blue Streaks of Manheim Township to the tune of 32-6.

MANHEIM CENTRAL

The E-town Bears had little trouble and enjoyed a field day as they breezed over the Barons of Manheim Central High School to the score of 53-6 in a game at Elizabethtown High School.

LITITZ

The Bears then marched on to Lititz and the result was another twist in the Pretzels as the Bears scored a first when they edged the Pretzels of Lititz High School 12-6.

Even the fellows on the bench are cheering at a "hot" game.

Robert Broucht, captain of this year's football team, receives a football, autographed by his teammates, from Coach Luchnick at Dr. Thompson's football banquet.

EPHRATA

Loyal Elizabethtonians and Ephratans anxiously waited the "game of the year" in which they hoped to prove their strength, but the Mountaineers won the game by a touch of Lady Luck in the third quarter to win the game 6-0.

WEST YORK

Over-confidence evidently lost this game for the Bears when the Bulldogs of West York upset the heavily favored Blue and White, 15-6.

SWATARA TOWNSHIP

Although the tough Eagles of Swatara were highly favored to crush E-town, the Bears provided for a home-coming crowd a thrilling game which resulted in a 7-7 tie.

ENOLA

The rampaging Bears found the Panthers of Enola no match as they overwhelmed the Panthers 32-6 on a muddy, cold afternoon, remembered by all students as the "Monday afternoon we had off," after a postponement.

SOUTHERN LANCASTER COUNTY JOINT (Quarryville)

The young, inexperienced "Golden Mules of Solanco" simply were no match for the Bears as they rolled over the Mules 40-6 in the bitter cold of Quarryville's Memorial Field in a game in which the whole team got "in the fight."

Twice-Crowned Champions

STARTING OFF on a tempo which eventually carried them to their second consecutive championship, our girls' field hockey team defeated a highly talented East Hempfield eleven by the score of 2-1, Jessie Martin and Pat Seiders sharing the honors. . . . Next, traveling to East Donegal, the local Blue and White trounced their opponents 5-0, Pat Seiders with four goals and Joy Wenger, the other, sharing in the scoring. . . . E-town then played the impolite host as they sent Mount Joy home with a 2-0 set-back, Dot Grubb and Fran Hoover "raising the chalk". . . . Battling both the weather and an inspired Manheim Central team our gals started slow, but came out ahead 5-0, four goals tallied by Dot Grubb, the other by Jessie Martin. . . . The local lasses next routed East Lampeter 5-0 behind the three goals of Dot Grubb and the two of Pat Seiders. . . . End of first half of play in the tournament with E-town ahead, followed closely by East Hempfield. . . . Our tempo slackened in the second half of play, as East Hempfield handed us our only defeat of the season 1-0, in a very well-played game. . . . Bouncing right back, our team again trounced East Donegal, this time to the tune of 6-0, scoring by Pat Seiders, two, Dot Grubb, Iva Brubaker, Fran Hoover, and Nan Good, each one. . . . Having once again gained their footing, the local eleven rolled to a 5-0 victory over Mount Joy—Dot Grubb led the scoring with two points followed by Pat Seiders, Iva Brubaker and Fran Hoover with one each. . . . Next, meeting a much improved East Lampeter team, our gals squeezed past by a 3-0 count. Dot Grubb, Pat Seiders, and Iva Brubaker each chipped in a goal. . . . Ringing down the curtain on the season's play, E-town clinched the championship of Section B in the Lanco Girls' Field Hockey League by defeating Manheim Central, in a twice postponed game, 3-0—scoring by Pat Seiders, three. . . . In conclusion, congratulations and continued success to Coach Jane Hunsecker, without whom the championship would not have been possible. Credit is also due to graduating players: Mary Grubb, captain; Jessie Martin, Arlene Reider, Beverly Brown, Phyllis Douglas.

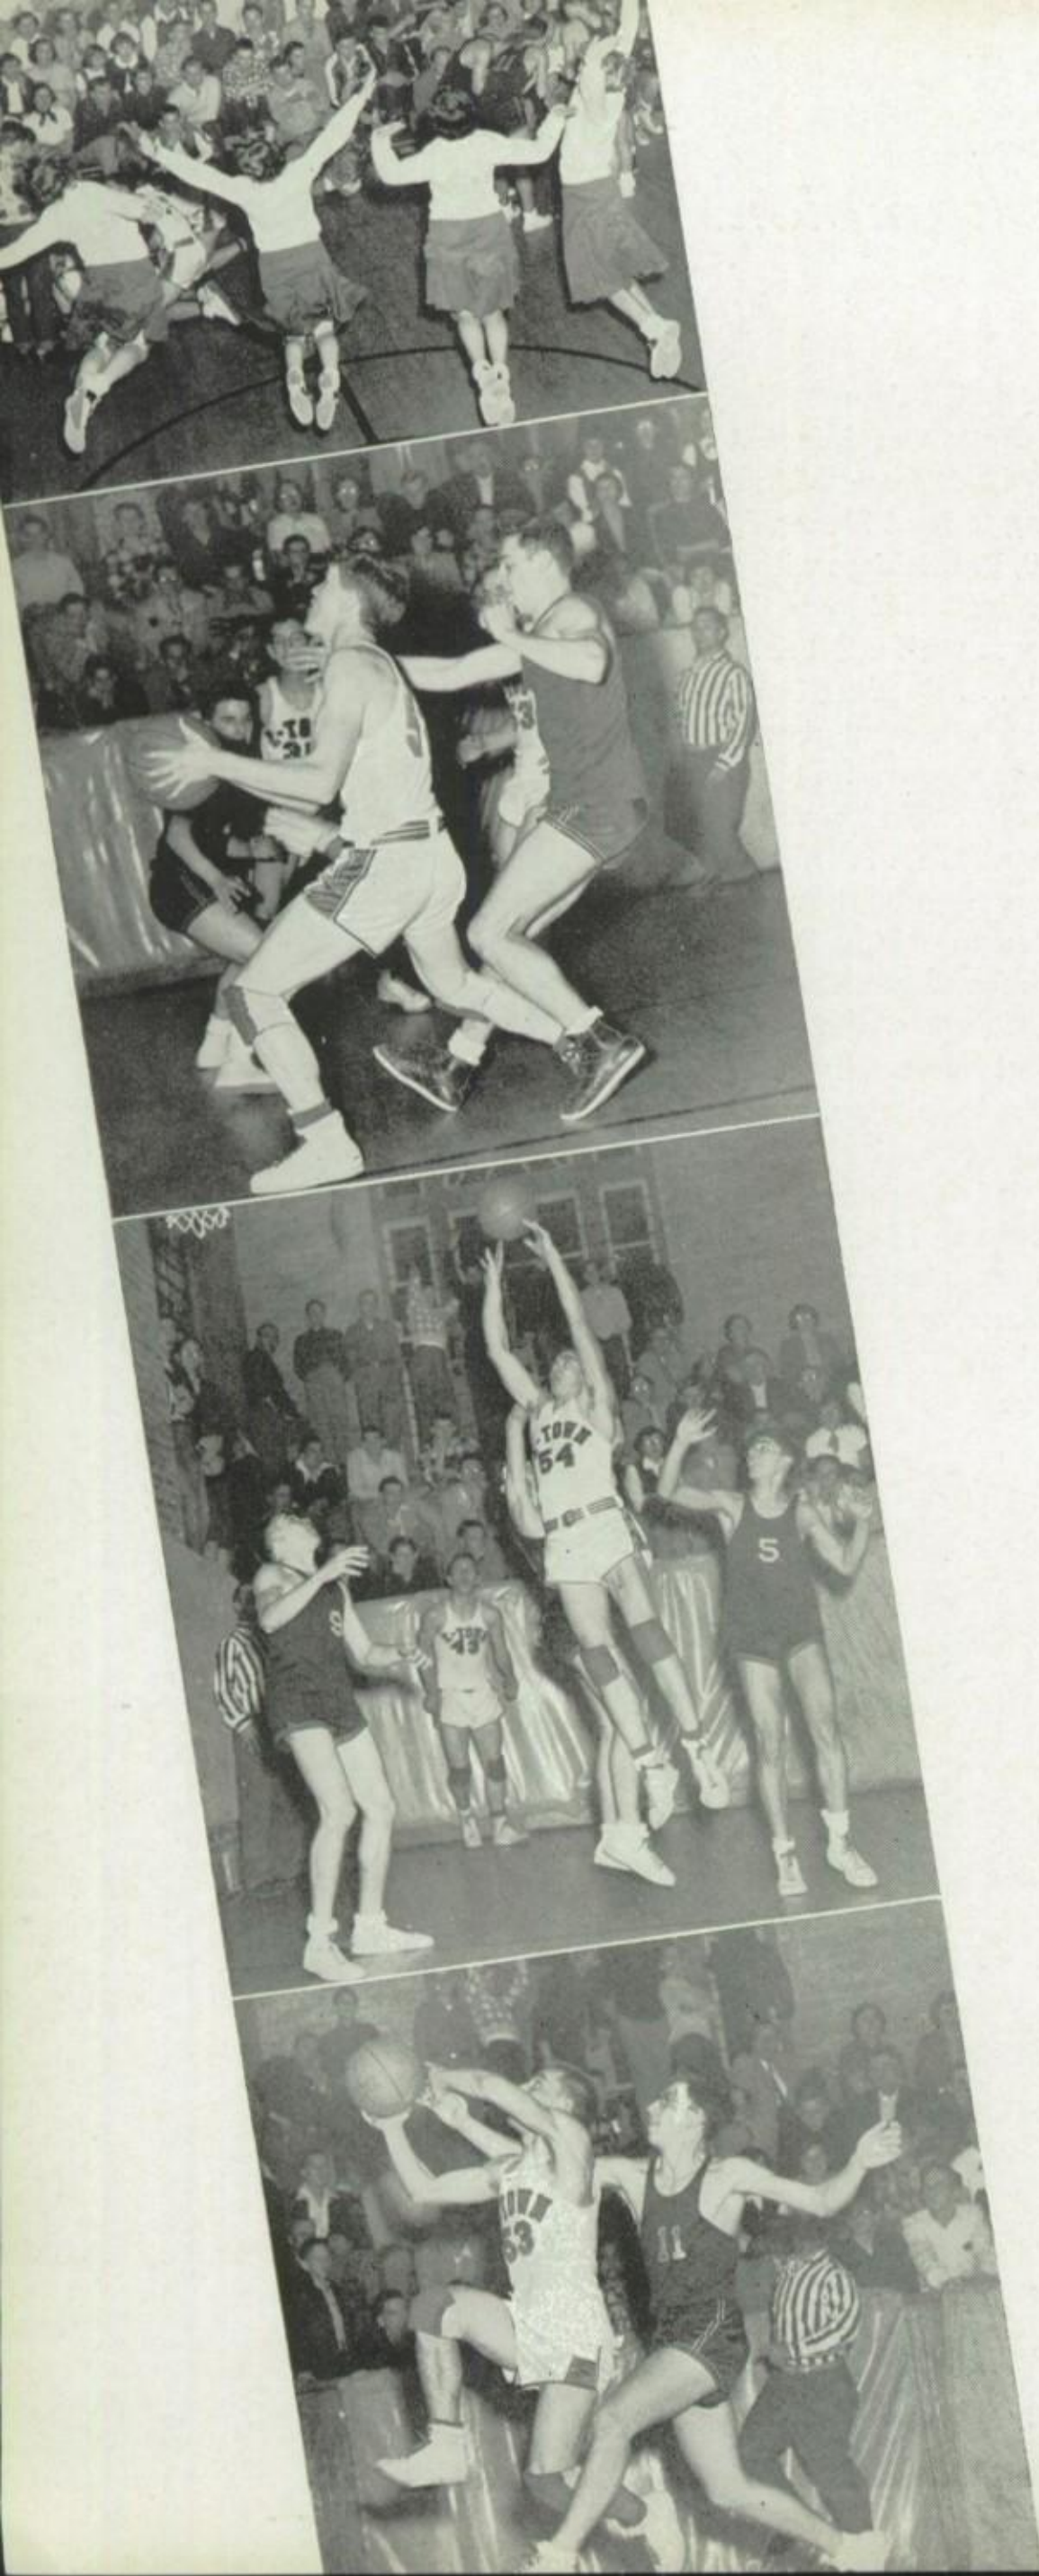

Action Packed Games

THE MAGNIFICENT COACHING, the unity among the fellows, the support of the faculty and student body, and the idea of discarding individual scoring crowned our Alma Mater with the laurels befitting her with the Section I championship.

The lads from East Lampeter High invaded the hardwoods of E. H. S. in hopes of downing the Blue and White but found the task impossible with the skillful ball-handling of Frank Walters, John Wanamaker, Jere Rutherford, George Helm, and Jake Shearer and the brilliant leadership of Coach Barnhart. New Holland and Columbia fell under the Bears' onslaught before the Bears forfeited a game to Dallastown and lost a close game to neighboring Middletown. Then began another win streak as Mount Joy, Marietta, Manheim, East Donegal, Red Lion, and East Hempfield all fell under the terrific Bears. The Bears climaxed their regular season with a thrilling victory over East Hempfield, thus extending their season victory to 14-5, with losses to Dallastown, Middletown, the Alumni, Steelton, and one loss to Red Lion.

After winning the Section I championship, the Bears then entered the county playoffs and won a brilliant semi-final victory by routing Warwick Township; in the finals against Ephrata, the superior Bears, though playing a better game, failed in the final seconds to win the championship of Lancaster County.

Eliminated from the county championship, the Bears entered the District 3 P.I.A.A. against Manor and emerged victorious but failed by one point in an overtime against Middletown.

Activities

Band, Choruses, Y's, and F. H. A. are but a few of the many extra-curricular activities enjoyed at E-town High. The interest and enthusiasm shown in these various doings are evidences of the all-around fitness of the members of the student body at Elizabethtown High School.

Boys' Quartet

P. Hollinger, H. Knorr, R. Emenheiser, R. Miller.
Vernon Belser is the present second tenor.

Boys' Chorus . . . HIGH SPIRITED

PLEASING BLEND of male voices . . . meets every Tuesday in Room B. . . . Miss Brandt, director, had to "dig" down into the sophomore class for first tenors. . . . Thrilled audiences at Christmas and Spring Concerts with their renditions of popular, semi-classic, and classic numbers.

Girls' Chorus

. . . SWEET SERENADE

HURRIED up to Room B every Friday fourth period for practice. . . . Real songsters who never caused any discipline problems. . . . Favorites were south-of-the-border songs, Mexican Serenade and Malaguena. . . . Altos were cautioned against taking the easy way out—singing the bass. . . . Looked prettier than spring flowers at the Spring Concert. . . . Conscientiously accompanied by Beatrice Bryan.

Sophomore Chorus . . . MIXED MELODIES

HEAR THAT MUSIC coming from Room B fourth period on Thursday? That's the Sophomore Mixed Chorus under the leadership of Miss Rosanna Brandt. . . . Miss Brandt's hard-working protégés are discovering hidden talent and developing much needed experience, which is being offered by this chorus, and which will enable them to become great assets to the senior choruses in the years to come. . . . This musically inclined group added nicely to the sophomore assembly.

Key Club . . . DUTY BOUND

Throughout the past year, the Key Club of Elizabethtown High School, under their capable adviser, Mr. Kenneth Grosh, made progress in the building up of the club. On the first day of school, the members assisted in the Orientation Program, acting as guides to the new scholars and showing them their way around the school. Also during September, the club assisted the local Kiwanis Club Farm Fair by selling balloons. The Kiwanis Club purchased a juke box for the Key Club, who in turn has made money by renting it to various organizations for entertainment. Making its debut in Elizabethtown High School, a basketball program was printed and sold at the home basketball games by the Key Club. In the spring, the club also assists in the annual Career Day held in the high school auditorium. In addition, a banquet is held for the senior members at which time they are honored.

Leading the Parade

HERE COMES THE BAND! Led by the color guard and majorettes, all of whom contributed much to the success of the team, these snappy, highstepping gals drew many admiring whistles from the spectators. The majorettes will lose Joanne Trostle, their capable leader, but the color guard is fortunate in retaining all of its members.

Cub Reporters

WITH A "NOSE FOR NEWS," our reporters continued their excellent job of publishing the "Bear Gazette" this year adding Scholastic Roto. . . . Always probing into teachers' and pupils' affairs in their attempt to gather "All the news that's fit to print." . . . Plan to enter Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. . . . Sends reporters to press conferences held at Harrisburg for district high school reporters. . . . Helps provide a continual headache for our able adviser, Miss Wagner. . . . Always striving for higher standards in the field of journalism.

Top Picture: Jean Landvater and Shirley Stahl getting the school paper ready for circulation.

Middle Picture: Janice Risser typing the stencils of the paper. The commercial sections type the copy and prepare the paper for distribution.

Miss Wagner, adviser of The Bear Gazette, and Paul Vuxta, editor, discuss the forthcoming issue.

YEARBOOK STAFF HEADS AND ADVISERS. SEATED, Left to Right J. Sensaman, Business Manager; Miss Bahr, Art Adviser; M. Weaver, Editor-in-Chief; J. Summy, Literary Editor; Miss Wagner, Literary Adviser. STANDING: M. Grubb, Art Editor; Miss Bell, General Adviser; L. Smith, Assistant Business Manager; D. Raffensperger, Photography Manager.

Deep in thought and hard at work at one of their meetings, the staff heads received instructions from Miss Bell.

The Elizabethan . . . MERRY MENAGERIE

EVERYONE WORKED hand in hand to prove that cooperation is the keynote of success. From the very first after-school session to decide on the theme until the last minute rush to put the whole book together, we all strived to present a picture of our high school as we know it. Yearbook staff heads met after school to plan lay-outs, lay-outs, and more lay-outs. "No, that costs too much," changed splashy lay-outs into blocks and circles. Finally, there was a sense of achievement that comes at the completion of a job well done—The 1952 Elizabethan.

ART STAFF . . . Under Mary Grubb's expert direction, the circus came to life in the divider pages and line-cuts of the yearbook. . . . Worked hard to get the two-tone effect for the senior picture. . . . All that time spent cutting and pasting pictures. . . . Ably advised by Miss Bahr.

BUSINESS STAFF . . . Made great use of opportunity to promote their salesmanship. . . . A fast moving group. . . . So much typing to do. . . . Jo Sensemen and Lloyd Smith share the honors, keeping our accounts straight. . . . The staff is responsible for keeping us "out of the red."

LITERARY STAFF . . . Future literary geniuses??? Combined their talents for write-ups, identifications, and picture captions. . . . "Now take time with your write-up," urged Miss Wagner, the ever-patient adviser. . . . Great difficulty in describing red hair accurately.

PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF . . . The eye witnesses for on-the-spot pictures. . . . These shutter-bugs provide much life to our book. . . . Miss Bell's camera had quite a workout. . . . Met in Room B. . . . Familiar instrument: the guillotine. . . . The end of many a good snap.

THE JAYCEE CREED

WE BELIEVE . . .

That the Brotherhood of man transcends
The sovereignty of nations;

That economic justice can best be won
By free men through free enterprise;

That government should be of laws
Rather than of men;

That earth's great treasure
Lies in human personality;

And that service to humanity
Is the best work of life.
